acquittal of Aaron Burr on trial for treason, he says: "This is to be regretted; not that the thirst for blood was not slaked on the occasion, but because, there never having been an execution in the United States for the highest of crimes, our people were, in 1812 and 1816, still untaught a most needful lessonthat playing at treason is a dan-gerous game! Hence, to threaten treason has become an ordinary party device in nominating Presidents, and in factious debates on the floors of Congress; hence nullification in 1832-3, and hence the present mighty rebellion."

COMO LOOKING UP .- The Sentinel says never, since the first discovery of the mines, have the prospects of Palmyra District looked so bright. The favorable opinion expressed by Prof. Silliman, and the working of Whitman rock at the Sacramento mill, has had a tendency to attract the attention of experienced mill men to the mines about Como. We are informed that party of practical operators are trying to make arrangements with the mill company to run the Como mill for a lengthy period. We hope they will succeed, as we are satisfied it will establish the permanency of the mines there beyond a question.—Enterprise, 27th.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 28, 1864.

VICTORY OF SHERMAN.

The gallant and heroic Sherman an nounces as a "Christmas gift" to his Excellency President Lincoln, the capture of Savannah, with 150 guns, 3 steamers 13 locomotives, 33,000 bales of cotton. a large quantity of ammunition and confederate stores, and 800 prisoners.

After a long and perilous march he has arrived at the coast with his brave army, and accomplished the object of his mission. Every loyal heart throughout our land should send a shout to Almighty God for the triumphant victory achieved by Sherman.

There has hardly been any one victory attained during this war, which should eall forth the heartfelt thanks of this Nation, like the one telegraphed by Sherman. It exhibits clearly that whatever be undertakes he will accomplish; that he is one of the greatest generals living, and that ere he makes his final halt, Charleston will meet the same fate as Savannah.

Let every flag of our Union float to the breeze, let our cannon bellow shotted salutes, and let every man, woman and child who love their country, send up their huzzas in honor of Sherman and his poble veterans.

Information Much Needed.

We are requested by the Prevost Marshal of Salt Lake to call attention to the following clause of the act of Congress. "for calling out and enrolling the national forces, and for other purposes," approved March 3d, 1863.

The number of persons in this Territory who perambulate the country, arrayed in some part of the garb of U.S. soldiers, is getting to be a decided nuisance. The fact is, so common has it become that it is almost impossible to tell a civilian from a soldier, so far as costame is concerned. This fact alone is a source of no little trouble all around. Offences are sometimes committed, and the only clue to the perpetrator is that be had on " soldiers clothes." Not unfrequently enlisted men have been wrongfully accused, certainly suspected of offences committed by civilians. On the other hand, offences committed by soldiers are sometimes shifted to civilians by the allegation that the latter wore soldier's clothes. A still greater evil has grown up under this system of civilians buying or wearing the habiliments of soldiers. Bad men are induced to rob their fellows of overcoats, pants arms and blankets, belonging to the government, and dispose of them to government, and dispose of them to These have grown to be evils which must be stopped. The law is clear and explicit, prohibiting a civilian from pur-chasing from a soldier any "arms clothes. military outfits or accourte mente," and possession of them is prima evidence of such sale, pledge, barter,

For more general information we print below the 23d section of the Act of '63, Official dispatches from Grant, dated prohibiting the sale or purchase of Gov- 22d -- 7 p. m., states that Savannah was ernment arms, clothing, etc:

SEC. 23. And be it further enacted, That th SEC. 23. And oe if further endeted, That the clothes, arms, military outfits, and accountermental furnished by the United States to any soldier, shall not be sold, bartered, exchanged, plodged, ioaned or given away; and so person not a soldier, or duly authorized officer of the United States, who has possession of any such clothes, arms, military outfits, or accountrements furnished as aforesaid, and which have been the subject of any such sale barter, exchange, pledge, ioan. of any such sale, barter, exchange, pledge, loan, or gift, shall have any right, title, or interest therein; but the same may be seized and taken wherever found by any officer of the United States, civil or military, and shall thereupon be delivered to any quantermaster, or other officer authorized to receive the same; and the possession of any such clothes, army, military outlits, or accountements, by any person not a soldier officer of the United States, shall be prima facevidence of such sale, barter, exchange, pledge loan, or gift, as aforesaid.

All citizens are warned that the law will be strictly enforced.

In addition to the declaration that no civilian can attain any title to soldiers arms and clothing, and will be compelled to deliver them up on demand, the laws of the United States make such pur-chase a criminal offense, punishable by fine and imprisonment.

HAFFMAN, who has been managing the Metropolitan Theater in San Francisco, Cal, has absconded, leaving these to whom he is in debt to wonder at his strange actions. We know of a certain shoreman that is prowling about the streets of S. L. City that could truthfully travel in his company.

THEY are going to organize a mock Legislature at Dayton, Cal., so says the Virginia Union. Wonder if the Utah Legislature is not trying to follow suit?

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

Baltimore, Dec. 25th. An Associated Press letter from Fortress Monroe the 24th, says: The mail steamer Thomas Collier has just arrived. A telegraph operator named Baker, be-longing to one of the chief offices in Richmond, escaped night before last, having eluded the vigilance of the rebel pickets and made his way successfully into our lines yesterday. He was subjected to a severe examination by Grant, and stated that intelligence of the fall of Savannah and the capture of the entire force, num-bering 13,000, commanded by Hardee, had reached Richmond a few hours before he made his escape. There was a report prevailing at the same time that Fort Fisher, commanding the entrance to Wilmington, had also failen, through a combined attack by Butler and l'or-ter's forces, but could not be traced to any reliable source.

New York, Dec. 25th. The Herald's Bahama correspondent of the 19th says: 15 steamers are in Nassau awaiting an opportunity to run the blockade of Charleston and Wilmington.

Gen. Hook's rebel division has left its position in front of the army of the James, and is supposed to have gone to assist in the defence of Wilmington.

The Richmond Despatch of the 22d says: A division of Union infantry, under Palmer, has occupied Bower Hill, eight miles east of Portsmouth, Va. for the purpose, it is supposed, of operating against Weldon. Custor, of Sheridan's cavalry, last

Tuesday, made an attack on the rebel eavalry under Rosser, mine miles north of Harrisonburg.

The Richmond Examiner of the 23d ays: Sheridan's infantry has come up the valley to a point between Harrison-burg and Newmarket. The advance is Newmarket. The advance is supposed to be intended as a diversion in favor of the cavalry movement on this side of the mountain. Early has marched out to meet him with a mounted force, which has crossed the mountain and is four thousand strong. They were yes-

The Herald's special of the 24th, says Richmond papers of the 24th contain official dispatches from Wilmington, Friday, p. m. At that time twenty-six Un ion vessels re-appeared off that place. No attempt has been made to land troops or attack the forts in consequence of the Rebel papers also contain the rumon that Charleston and probably Savannah have been evacuated.

Washington, Dec. 25th-7 p. m. A dispatch read this evening by the President, from Sherman, dated, Savannah, Dec. 22d, announce his occupation of the City, and capture of 150 guns, plenty of ammunition and about 25,000 bales of cotton. No other particulars occupied by Sherman on the morning of the 21st, and that on the preceding af-ternoon and night Hardee escaped with the main body of his infantry and light artillery, blowing up the iron-clads and navy yard. He enumerates as captured, 800 prisoners, 150 guns, thirteen loco-motives in good order, 190 cars, a large lot of ammunition and materials of war, three steamers and 33,000 bales of cotton. No mention is made of the present position of Hardee's force, which is estimated at about 15,000. The dispatch of Sherman is as follows:

Savannah, Dec. 22d. To his Excellency, President Lincoln: I beg to present you as a Christmas gift the City of Savannah with 150 heavy guns, plenty of ammunition, and about 25,000 bales of cotton.

Wilmington, Dec. 23d. Twenty-six vessels of the Federal fleet re-appeared this morning. There has been no change since last dispatch. This is latest intelligence received from that expedition. (Signed) STANTON. Louisville, Dec. 24th.

Lyon's forces, estimated at $2 or 3,000 cavalry and six pieces of artillery, struck the Louisville and Nashville Railroad at Elizabethtown, destroyed a few unimportant spans of the bridge over Bacon creek a small stream, then turned north and is now threatening an important trestle work at Muldrough's Hill. La-grange's brigade, of McCook's division. is close upon Lyon's rear. Our military authorities are prepared to give Lyon a warm reception.

Yesterday evening the steamer Morning Star. bound upward from Evansville to Louisville, put into Louisport and was boarded by about fifty guerrillas, who robbed the passengers of about $3,000, killed two discharged soldiers and compelled the captain to transport them to Cloverport, where they released the boat.

Boston, Dec. 25th. The wife, son and daughter of the rebel Gen. Preston, of Kentucky, came as prisoners in the Africa. Orders from War Department refused them permission to land; also declined their request to leave by railroad for Cincinna-They remain on board the steamer to be carried whence they came.

New York, Dec. 26th. The Tribune's special from the army of the Shenandoah of the 22d says: Custar's division, after four days absence returned to-day from a reconnoisance to Hay Spring, nine miles from Harrison-burg. On Thursday morning Rosser's cavalry attempted to surprise Custar's camp, dashing in disguised in Union uniforms, which for a time produced much confusion and prevented our men from distinguishing the friend from the foe; they captured fifty of the N. H. cavalry, but were soon overpowered and they were re-captured with the excep-tion of three men and Lieut. Col. Hutch-Rhodes' old division of infantry ing. was advancing to the attack, and Cus tar, having accomplished the object of his expedition, fell back, Rosser refusing to follow. The enemy left fifteen dead and many wounded behind. Our loss was two killed and twenty-five wounded.

The World's special says: Official information from Nashville states Hood's losses from the 13th to the 22d of this month were, killed 2,650, wounded 9,720. prisoners. exclusive of the wounded, 5,870, with the wounded the prisoners amount to about 13,000; forty-nine guns were captured from the infantry and eight from the cavalry.

A GALLANT RECORD.—The officers of the Fifth Army Corps of the Army of the Potomac are now in session to decidemon the battles which shall be in-scribed upon their flag, and it appears they find it no easy task to make a se-lection, as the regiments comprising the corps have participated in no less elgbty-six general engagements, and no flag can possibly hold them all. What a splendid commentary upon the fighting properties of our armies, and how sug-gestive of the desperate nature of the nication with the City of Savannan nication with my steamers to-day, taking up all the torpedoes we could see and passing war! We venture to say that there never was a corps in any other army that made to clear the channel of all observations.

[COMMUNICATED.] THE LAWS OF UTAH

No. 10. The Act concerning "Justifiable killing and the prevention of public offen-ses" is among the most singular as it is is among the most singular as it is among the most outrageous laws of the Territory, (R. S. p. 203.) If a man, bav-ing killed a person, can show that cir-cumstances were sufficient to excite the fears of a reasonable person that the victim intended to commit some act constituting an offense against the party-kill-ing, and that he really acted under the influence of such fears and not in a spirit of revenge, he is judged as having only discharged his daty, and the act of killing is termed "justifiable homicide." Thus a man can have a malice against another, and desiring to have him out of the way, is suddenly seized with "the fears of a reasonable person," that an offense is about to be committed against himself or his family, and straightway he kills his enemy. He then appears in Court, narrates these reasonable fears, and is acquitted of any evil act. A man may be murdered, yet under the pro-visions of this Act his murderer may escape the punishment due the crime, un-der the plea that the circumstances were sufficient to excite fears that certain acts scould be, or had been, committed.

Whatever may have been the intention of the law making power in passing this Act, the effects of it are precisely as stated, and it is roundly as y many residents of Utah that it is for the purpose of shielding from civil pro-cessthe Danites of the Church who of-Danites of the fer up the blood of men as an atonement for their sins by order of the Church authorities. So utterly disgraceful and barbarous is this Act that Governor Harding referred to it in decisive language in his Message of 1862, as follows:

"I call your attention especially to sections 112 and 113 under the title of Justifiable killing and the prevention of public offences.' These provisions are too palpably unjust to stand a day on your statutes. It would be an easy matter for an innocent man to be murdered, and yet under these provisions his murderer could escape under the plea that the circumstances were such as to excite his fears that certain acts either would be done or had been, in which he claimed the immunity of the Statute. If your laws against the offenses therein named are not sufficiently penal, make them so; but to authorize by a public statute the killing of a man upon the mere suspicion that he has committed or will commit certain acts which are less than capital, upon his conviction, after a fair trial, seems to me most cruel and unjust. In China, it is said, that a high mandarin of the blue button' may kill with impunity a person suspected of stealing rice, and cut open his stomach to find the evidence of his guilt. In no other instance have I ever been able to find any statadopt the principles contained in that statute without soon becoming (drop-ping the figure) as a whitened sepul-cher filled with dead men's bones.' ??

Persons convicted of any crime punishable by death, may, in the discretion of the Court, be either banged, or shot. or beheaded; or the condemned has the pleasure of choosing the mode of his death from the three methods named. provided the Judge himself does not determine it, (R. S. p. 206.)

THE SKELETON IN THE CANADIAN CLOSET. The Canadians, who have been barboring and aiding the enemies of this country, have just discovered a foe within their own household. An Eastern correspondent writes :

In the meantime, our Canadian "breth ren" are just making the discovery that there is sitting cheek-by-jowl with them, at their own table, a grim skeleton whose presence is anything but pleasant to them. The skeleton appears in the form of the Fenian Brotherhood, concerning whose movements we hear of startling developments at Toronto and elsewhere in the Provinces. Secreted arms, we are told, have been found, leaders of an alleged conspiracy are being arrested, and there is "existing a painful feeling of insecurity." This is coming down of insecurity." This is coming down rather hard upon Johnny, just at the time when his liege subjects are so busily occupied in helping rebel refugees to create a "feeling of insecurity" among his neighbors across the line. Why did the Brotherhood select so inopportune a moment for bothering the eld gentle-

Cave Creek is a curiosity, taking its name from a cave, in which it heads, at the foot of a mount tain. The entrance to the cave is by a narrow passage through rock, beyond which the cave opens for half a nile, and a large lake is found, in some places thirty feet deep, and interspersed with sand bars. Traces of beaver were found. At the farther end the waters flowed from under a partition of rock, and it is intended to explore the region beyond if practicable. Many farms and ranches have been located for ferty or fifty miles down the valley. Messrs. Griswold & Woodward are building a large house of "entertainment for man and beast." In Egan Cañon great improvements has been made. Major Egan will soon have lath and shingle fixings to his saw mill, and other mill folks are busy. There is also a good supply of water and grass, and some large farms have been taken up .- Erchange.

THE AMERICANS AREAD PHYSICALLY .-A surgeon in New York city examined 8,709 recruits for the army, of whom 4, 538 were Americans, 1,964 Irish, 1,453 Germans, 315 English and Scotch, 135 French, and 545 belonging to 26 othernations. He made a strict examination to determine whether there was any foundation for the frequent affirmation of the English journals that the physi-cal man in America was deteriorating. The Americans in New York City were of course not above the average of Americans physically, yet his examina-tion puts them shead. In stature the tion puts them shead. In stature the American born ranked the highest, the English next, the Irish pext, the Germans next, and the French last. In regard to their physical conformation, he divided the recruits into four classes, and found the Americans to possess the highest rate of prime physique. Of American born recrnits, 47.5 per cent, and the Irish 35 per cent. He arrived at the conclusion that no race can show a larger proportion of oscens and mus-cular development; and he ascribes it not to race, but to the diffused blessings of meat and drink.

The Italian papers give an account of a terrible tragedy in Turin. Two lovers, finding an obstacle to their union, resolved to sacrifice themselves. The young man wrote a letter to his mother, and a letter to his sweetheart Rosita, and then blew out his brains, Rosita determined to share her lover's fate. Her family entreated her to be calm; she seemed to yield to their prayer, but a day afterwards contrived to be alone, and them putting a pistol to her heart she instantly ended life. Her mother hastened to her daughter the moment she heard the pistol's report. At the sight of her bleeding, dying child, the poor woman's senses were rest from her by emotion, and she is now in a mad house. Resita's young sister was so struck by this tragic scene, she attempted to leap headforement from the window, and was with the utmost difficulty restrained.

UNBONNETING THE LADRES. - At a Paris theater all ladies are required to take off their bonnets. This proviso has been found necessary, since, owing to the pre-sent fashion prevailing in that article of female attire, it is almost impossible persons sitting behind a lawy with b bonnet on to see what is going on forward on the stage. The end has been attained by placing printed bills abo the theatre, containing the following aunouncement: "All young and handsome ladies are politely requested to take off their bonnets. All others may keep them on."

Sheridan's command has captured, in the Valley, one mile and thirty-two yards of artillery—averaging about two pieces per day since the campaign com-menced. About as fast as the enemy can make them.

Consoling.—A Democratic paper consoles itself as follows:

It is no shame to belong to the minority. Noah and his family were in the minority, while the vast majority went to destruction, pretty much as they are

ITS Losses.—The California Battalion, in a Massachusetts regiment, has lost twenty-three in killed, twenty-six wounded and ten taken prisoners by the enemy;

THE "Union Varieties" on Monday evening last, played to a fait lives, completing the incle-mency of the weather. Their songs, dances, burlesques, etc., were done well. Billy Shoppard exceeded all his previous attempts to please, which of course resulted in bringing down the house. This troupe, thus fir, have exceeded the expectations of every one who has witnessed their performances, and everything denotes a continuance of their wit and fun.

CITIZENSHIP.—In answer to the question of a correspondent, "Can a Chinaman become a citizen of the United States?" the Call answers, "There is nothing in the Federal Constitution prohibiting Mongolians from becoming citizens." From this reply that paper leaves it to be inferred that a Chinaman can become a citizen, Congress, according to the Constitution, has full power to make naturalization laws. All laws on the subject say that a foreigner, to become a citizen, must be a "white person." The term "white' has, time and again, been decided to apply only to members of the Caucasian family, hence a Mongolian cannot become a citizen .-Sac. Bee.

NEGRO MINSTRELS. - The New York Herald has a long article on negro minstrelsy, which closes as follows:

"There are probably over five hundred men constantly engaged in the minstrel profession in this country. Their besetting sin is intemperance; though of course there are many of them who are quite free from this habit, and are in private life real gentlemen. In all parts of the country negro minstrelsy is finding its way, and in towns and cities where the scientific lecturer, the panorama, or the concert troupe draw scanty audiences, there is always a large crowd of noisy and delighted pa-trons to attend and enjoy the negro minstrels performances."

VIRTUALLY EXEMPTED.—Recently three Catholic priests were dafted in St. Louis to serve in the army. In relation to them the Provost Marshal General issued an order which it is claimed virtually exempts priests from the draft.

LUCKY COMPANY.—The Grass Valley National says the lead of the Lucky Company is worked by six owners and pays $18,000 per month clear profit. Up to the time of the discovery of this lead the owners were all poor men.

MERRIAM'S SUBMARINE VES-SEL.-A correspondent who has been down in the submarine vessel recently invented and manufac-tured in this city, by S. 8. Merri-am, and just tested by himself and the Government, near New York, sends us the following account of his experiences: "Entering the singular vessel from the top, the door was closed and the order, 'Men to your places' given to the fittle crew, who promptly obeyed. When everything was ready Mr. Merriam turned some valves and the compressed air came hissing in, Producing an unpleasant sensation upon the drum of the ears, of Overland Stage Line Office, which one was at once relieved by inspiring and swallowing. The vessel seemed perfectly under control, for we stopped when half way down to the bottom, and raised the door on the bottom of the boat, but the air inside of course prevented any water from coming in, even enough to wet the seles of of our feet. One of the crew from your city improved the opportuni-ty to dive out and come up on the surface of the water, much to the astonishment of the spectators on the bank. Heafterwards returned and entered the vessel from the bottom, when the door was closed, another and heavier rush of compressed air came in, and we were on the bed of the river, twenty odd feet under water, this distance requiring an additional pressure to resist the water with the door open. We could stand on the bottom of the river and not wet our feet, and at that distance under water, could easily see to read by the light that came in at the glass windows. Bells ringing on the ouside were also heard distinctly. To return to the rest of the outside world only a few strokes of the pumps were necessary; the air rushed out of the bottom and the boat was quickly on the surface of the water. We moved with a propeller easily under as well as uponthe water, and in all respects the vessel worked so complete that its success is undoubted."—Springfield Republican.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE .-Fast night, while the schooner Ontaria, of Rockland, Me., was passing through the Sound, off Montauk, she sprung a leak, and Fine and Well in twenty minutes after she foundered and went down, carrying with her four of her crew. Her captain and principal owner, J. I. Jameson, and one seaman, succeeded in getting into the rigging, and climbed to the topmast head, where they remained until the steamer Empire State came along, when by their shouts they arrested the attention of Captain Brayton, who immediately stopped his steamer and sent the boat, under command of the chief mate, James Johnson, and took them off and brought them on board the steamer, where they were kindly cared for. A subscription was started on board the boat, and about one hundred dollars were raised for them, to which some of the Masons of this city have added fifty more.—Boston Journal, Oct. 28th

Col. Jos. P. Collins, of the 29th Indiana regiment—a nephew of Dr. James S. Collins of Chicago has recently died in Atlanta. This is the seventieth male relative Dr. Collins has been called on to part with by the casualties of this war—an extraordinary fatality to be visited upon a family circle.
